

Edison Airoidi

Appointed Director of Technology, Enterprise and Environment in June 2015.

Graduated in Mechanical Engineering from USP Polytechnic School, with MBA in Business Management from FIA.

At Sabesp since 1981, among other positions, he served as Superintendent in the Northern Business Units, Water Production and Integrated Planning.

Responsible for executing programs, projects and structuring projects of water and sewage in the metropolitan regions of São Paulo (São Lourenço Producer System, Cantareira-Paraíba do Sul Interconnection and Tietê Project) and Baixada Santista (Onda Limpa and Água do Litoral); coordinate the Loss Program; Research, Development and Innovation; New business; and Environmental Management.

