

Rafi Nevo is the co-founder and has been the CEO of the Mashtela fund For the last 5 years, The Mashtela scouts , connects Kibbutzim to entrepreneurs, technology startups and mature companies and supports their investments with funds from the Kibbutz movement. About 40 early stage companies created partnerships Kibbutzim and kibbutz Industries during that period. Rafi is also heading the technology, innovation and entrepreneurship division at the Kibbutz Industry Association

Formerly, he was the CEO of the cleantec and water technological incubator in Ashkelon, was involved in founding and developing several companies such as TreaTec21, Rotec, Curapipe and more.

In addition to managing the Mashtela, Rafi is the CEO of Agritech NGO , which organizes the world renowned tri-annual international "Agritech Israel exhibition & Conference" , the next one is on May 2021. Agritech NGO is building now the National Center for Advanced Agriculture in partnership with "Mikve-Israel" agricultural school and farm.