

Sally Levy

Sally Levy is the CEO of Meniv Rishon Ltd. Since 2012, She is responsible for managing the water supply of the third largest city in Israel. Meniv Rishon excels according to the governmental index for water corporations.

Mrs. Levy has a long and distinguished career in public service, such as CEO of Yavne City Municipality and in several key management positions in the education department of the Rishon Le Zion Municipality. The positions involve financial management, formulating strategic and policies and running large budgets.

She has also served as an education emissary in the United States, creating community programming in San Francisco and west USA on behalf of the Jewish Agency for Israel.

Ms. Levy is a graduate of Bar Ilan University, where she received her bachelor's degree in Natural Sciences with specialization in ecology, she holds a Master's degree from the Hebrew University Jerusalem in Biochemistry and Nutrition and a Master's degree in Law. She is also certified in education and management training for schools from Tel Aviv University. She is fluent in four languages and is the proud mother of 3 grown children.